Call to Conference & Board of Directors' Meeting October 14-15, 2022 President's Letter

"Freedom Is Coming" is the apt theme for our CFRW Fall Board of Directors Meeting and Conference. I know how disheartening it has been, despite the great gains made under the Trump administration, to watch Biden systematically destroy them, all within the first half of his presidency. But the only thing surprising about it has been its speed.

CFRW women have not been caught flat-footed. We have long been studying the plans of the far left to take down our country. Rooted in the teachings of Marx and Alinsky, this movement wants nothing less than to destroy all that has made us strong: the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence, the governmental balance of powers, respect for law and order, secure borders, states' rights, free enterprise and entrepreneurship, a strong and healthy economy, thriving industry and plentiful sources of energy. Finally, Americans love all freedoms; however, above all, they revere their freedom to worship and to build strong families where children are safe and can thrive.

If these sound all too familiar, it is because these values are the cornerstone of the Republican Party! This puts us squarely opposed to what today's Democrats profess to stand for. Consequently, there can be no compromise or "reaching across the aisle" to a party that, at its core, desires to destroy us!

Attending our fall conference this year is more important than ever before. We will have speakers and candidates who will present us with unvarnished truth and facts. It will also be encouraging to gather with like-minded patriots who are not intimidated by the ubiquitous lies of the left. Instead, we are getting fired up and getting ready to hit the polls in November!

Our 3rd Vice President, Nancy Wofford, has been holding training sessions on poll watching, ballot harvesting, and Sidekick training. There will be more soon, so watch for them. She has also held Zooms that remind us of the pervasive nature of election fraud. We are now more aware than ever before and forewarned is forearmed!

Our conference will no doubt be filled with meat-and-potato issues, but we will also have FUN! Check out our Friday night event that Tammy Galt, our 4th Vice President, has planned. We will also have a surprise guest speaker at dinner Saturday night! This is a first for CFRW, and, trust me, you will not be disappointed!

Our theme of "Freedom Is Coming" is not only our prayer, but our promise! We will remain true to our word that together we resolve not only to take back our beautiful state of California, but to make "right" again our United States Congress!

CFRW women are united! We are relentless! We are strong.....and together we will WIN!!

Janet Price
CFRW President
2022-2023
